55. Accreditation. Accreditation is an official declaration by the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms that a person meets the Association’s standards to be a CABF Accredited Minister. Accreditation is a covenant relationship between the CABF and the persons the Association accredits. This allows ministers to meet certain professional requirements and have ‘denominational’ recognition for employment. It confirms that a minister is in good standing with the CABF and provides the minister with a professional ‘denominational’ identity. The CABF pledges to provide ongoing support to those who have attained CABF accreditation and who strive to maintain its standards. Accredited clergy agree to on-going participation in the life of the Association, as well as maintaining communication and accountability to the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms. Accreditation by the CABF does not preclude the holding of accreditation by other denominational bodies.

56. Qualifications for Accreditation. Accreditation is granted to individual ministers who:

57. Authorization to Conduct Marriages. On the recommendation of the Credentials Committee, CABF accredited ministers may be listed with their respective Provincial or Territorial Department of Vital Statistics or other appropriate Register or office for authorization to officiate, conduct or solemnize marriages. The scope and details of this authorization are found in the Policy and Procedures Manual.
58. Dismissal of Accredited Ministers. The Credentials Committee is charged by the Council to create and review from time to time and revise as required, and then to administer and follow a process whereby CABF accredited ministers may have that accreditation removed. There shall also be a process and means whereby any decision of the Credentials Committee may be appealed. These processes as they are created or revised, and approved by Council, shall be communicated to, and subject to approval by, the members at the next succeeding meeting of Members. Details of the procedure are contained in the Policy and Procedures Manual.

APPENDIX I

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION FOR BAPTIST FREEDOMS

Covenant

Being led as we believe by the Holy Spirit, and in response to the call of God in Jesus Christ to be disciples and servants in the world, we as individuals and churches who cherish historic Baptist principles, freedoms, and traditions, humbly commit that in our life together:

- We will respect and defend the freedom and the responsibility of individuals and local churches to interpret and live the call of God in every aspect of their individual and shared lives, led by God's Spirit, informed by the Scriptures, and without coercion from the state or any ecclesiastical body;
- We will support and uphold one another in mutual respect and love, and remember one another in prayer;
- We will affirm and celebrate participation in the whole Church of Jesus Christ, worshipping and working together to witness to, and to further, the reign of God in our lives and in our world;
- We will create opportunities for exploration of doctrinal, ethical, and social issues, entering into dialogue with one another, and with those beyond our fellowship, in a spirit of tolerance, respect, and love;
- We will make the worship of God primary in all our gatherings;
- We will strive, when we gather, to create times and places of refuge and renewal, health and wholeness, in which all are welcome;
- We will seek to be equitable and to act justly in all our dealings;
- And we will foster partnerships within the fellowship, and with other people of faith, in order that we might live out the intent of this Covenant freely in community.
