Being led as we believe by the Holy Spirit, who moves with renewing power among Christians in all denominational traditions;

And as Baptists committed to preserving and celebrating our historic freedoms;

And desiring to associate ourselves in a fellowship which seeks to experience and express both personally and in the corporate life of our Churches that freedom in which Christ makes us free;

And further desiring to continue the Atlantic Baptist Fellowship, initially established November 20, 1971, pursuant to the following By-Laws.

INTERPRETATION

1. Definitions. In these By-Laws:

- (a) “CABF, “Fellowship” or “Society” means CANADIAN ASSOCIATION FOR BAPTIST FREEDOMS.

- (d) “Special Resolution” means a resolution passed by not less than three quarters ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) of such Members entitled to vote as are present in person or by proxy, where proxies are allowed, at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution has been duly given.
- (e) “Policy and Procedures Manual” means a separate document that contains the approved operating policies and procedures of the CABF, hereafter referred to as the “P&P Manual.”

2. Interpretation. In these By-Laws, words importing the singular number only, include the plural number and vice versa, and words importing the masculine gender only, include the feminine or neuter gender and vice versa. The headings and other descriptions of all articles, sections, paragraphs and subparagraphs are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of these By-Laws.

ORDINATION, APPOINTMENT AND DISMISSAL OF CLERGY

- 54. Clergy Credentials. The CABF oversees a process by which a person having a sense of calling and the necessary education may receive the credentials necessary to become accredited by the CABF to perform ministry. For candidates who are not ordained and who hold a Church Licence to Minister, a candidate may apply for a CABF Association Licence to Minister; for candidates who hold the appropriate church and association licenses, the CABF may organize an Ordination Examining council; and for those who have been ordained by a body acceptable to the CABF, a candidate may apply to become accredited by the CABF. In all case, candidates must fulfill the requirements as established in the CABF P&P Manual.
- 55. Clergy Accreditation. Clergy accreditation is an official declaration by the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms that a person meets the Fellowship's standards to be a CABF Accredited member of the clergy. Clergy Accreditation is a covenant relationship between the CABF and the persons the Fellowship accredits. This allows ministers to meet certain professional requirements and have 'denominational' recognition for employment. It confirms that a minister is in good standing with the CABF and provides the minister with a professional 'denominational' identity. The CABF pledges to provide ongoing support to those who have attained CABF accreditation and who strive to maintain its standards. Accredited clergy agree to on-going participation in the life of the Fellowship, as well as maintaining communication and accountability to the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms. Accreditation by the CABF does not preclude the holding of accreditation by denominational bodies.
- 56. Qualifications for Accreditation. Clergy Accreditation is granted to individual members of the clergy who:
- (1) successfully complete requirements overseen by the Credentials Committee, which address the following core standards through a process of written papers, interviews, and mutual discernment. (Details of these standards are found in the P&P Manual.):
    - Ordination
    - Ministerial and theological integrity
    - Good standing and accountability within the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms
    - Ability to work in ways that promote equity, collegiality, and diversity

- Willingness to affirm the Covenant and share the mission of CABF
- Commitment to sharing the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ
- Continuing spiritual formation and growth
- Academic education, self-reflection training, and professional experience

57. Authorization to Conduct Marriages. The Credentials Committee may recommend to the provincial authority that a person be authorized to conduct marriages. The scope and details of this authorization are found in the P&P Manual.

58. Dismissal of Clergy. The Credentials Committee is charged by the Council to create and review from time to time and revise as required, and then to administer and follow a process whereby members of the clergy accredited by the CABF may have that accreditation removed. There shall also be a process and means whereby any decision of the Accreditation Committee may be appealed. These processes as they are created or revised, and approved by Council, shall be communicated to, and subject to approval by, the members at the next succeeding meeting of Members. Details of the procedure are contained in the P&P Manual.

FINANCE

59. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year end of the Society shall be the last day of December.

60. Financial Report. Council shall annually present to the Members a written report on the financial position of the Fellowship. The report shall be in the form of:

- (a) a balance sheet showing its assets, liabilities and equity, and
- (b) a statement of its income and expenditure in the preceding fiscal year.

61. Signing of Financial Report. A copy of the financial report shall be signed by the auditor, if one has been appointed, or by two members of Council if no auditor has been appointed.

62. Filing of Financial Report with Registrar. A signed copy of the financial report shall be filed with the Registrar within 14 days after each annual meeting.

63. Auditor. An auditor of the CABF may be appointed by the Members at the annual general meeting and, if the Members fail to appoint an auditor, Council may do so.

64. Borrowing. The Society may only borrow money as approved by a special resolution of the Members.

65. Members Inspection of Books and Records. The Members may inspect the annual financial statements and minutes of Members and Council meetings at the registered office of the Society with 1 weeks' notice. All other books and records of the Society may be inspected by any member at any reasonable time within 2 days prior to the annual general meeting at the registered office of the CABF.

- 66. No Loans or Advance of Funds. The Society shall not make loans, guarantee loans or advance funds to any member of Council or Officer.

STATUTORY COMPLIANCE

- 67. Compliance with *Societies Act of Nova Scotia. For so long as the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms is incorporated under the Societies Act of Nova Scotia, the CABF shall do all things necessary to comply with that Act. If, for reasons of polity or otherwise, the Fellowship cannot comply with that Act, the Fellowship may by Special Resolution and satisfying any other requirements of the Act or by law, surrender its Certificate of Incorporation.

AMENDMENT

- 68. Amendment, Repeal of Memorandum. By-Laws or Covenant. The Members may repeal, amend or add to the Memorandum of Association of the Society, or these By-Laws, or the Covenant of the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms by a special resolution at a meeting duly called and for which notice of the proposed action has been duly given. No By-Law or amendment to these By-Laws or amendment to the Memorandum of Association of the Society shall take effect until the Registrar approves of it.

and in response to the call of God in Jesus Christ to be disciples and servants in the world, we as individuals and churches who cherish historic Baptist principles, freedoms, and traditions, humbly commit that in our life together:

- We will respect and defend the freedom and the responsibility of individuals and local churches to interpret and live the call of God in every aspect of their individual and shared lives, led by God's Spirit, informed by the Scriptures, and without coercion from the state or any ecclesiastical body;
- We will support and uphold one another in mutual respect and love, and remember one another in prayer;
- We will affirm and celebrate participation in the whole Church of Jesus Christ, worshipping and working together to witness to, and to further, the reign of God in our lives and in our world;
- We will create opportunities for exploration of doctrinal, ethical, and social issues, entering into dialogue with one another, and with those beyond our fellowship, in a spirit of tolerance, respect, and love;
- We will make the worship of God primary in all our gatherings;
- We will strive, when we gather, to create times and places of refuge and renewal, health and wholeness, in which all are welcome;
- We will seek to be equitable and to act justly in all our dealings;
- And we will foster partnerships within the Fellowship, and with other people of faith, in order that we might live out the intent of this Covenant freely in community.
